

Thursday 3rd September

ALAN FRANCIS

Scottish comedian ALAN FRANCIS first came to the notice of comedy audiences when he won Channel 4's So You Think You're Funny Award in 1991. Since then his reputation has grown as a writer, stand-up and actor.

"the beautifully observed performances captures all the manic ambivalence of a Hello Magazine culture." The Times

STEVE DAY

Steve Day is a truly unique comedian - warm, witty and engaging whilst dealing with the dilemmas of being a deaf man in a hearing world.

His stories of multiple children, wearing a suit and the problems caused by not knowing how words are pronounced will have audiences in raptures, and his uplifting tales of overcoming the obstacles in his path will leave crowds feeling inspired.

£15 per person pre-booked or £18 on the door. Price includes a main course on our comedy night menu.
Door opens 7.30 for 8.00.

www.99stationstreet.com